Call of the Governor for Eleven Regiments of Volunteers.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE }
Indianapolis, December 31, 1864. }

REVISED GENERAL ORDERS.

FOR ADDITIONAL VOLUNTEERS.

In pursuance of the call of the President of the United States, under date of 20th instant, for 300,000 volunteers, eleven (11) regiments of Infantry—one regiment from each Congressional District—will be raised in Indiana. The term of service will be one, two, or three years, as the recruit may elect at the time of enlistment.

RECRUITING OFFICERS.

A Chief Recruiting Officer for each Congressional District will be designated by the Governor. This officer will have the general management of recruiting in his district. He will be expected to canvass the several counties within his jurisdiction, assist in raising the companies, and render such services as may be necessary for the speedy organization of the regiment.

One Second Lieutenant for each company will be commissioned and conditionally mustered into service at the date of his appointment. The Second Lieutenant need not necessarily be the Second Lieutenant of the company, on its final organization, but may be made First Lieutenant, or Captain. Others may co-operate with him in raising and organizing the company, and such disposition will be made of the offices as may be equitable and just to the parties who ~~recruit the men~~.

No commissions will be issued except to persons who intend in good faith to go into the service, and it must appear that persons appointed are physically qualified for active duty in the field, of fair standing, and good moral character, and not in way connected or interested with bounty or substitute agents, or employed for pay to fill quotas of counties or sub-districts.

The following order of the War Department in reference to conditional Second Lieutenants, will be observed:

"Any officer thus appointed and mustered, shall only be entitled to be paid on the muster and pay roll of his company, and should he fail to enlist an organized company within such time as the War Department may designate, the men enlisted by him shall be transferred to some other company, his appointment shall be canceled, and he be discharged without pay, unless the Governor give him a position in the consolidated company to which his men shall have been transferred."

Persons who have heretofore been in the service must show that they have been honorably discharged.

Resigned officers cannot be recommissioned until the disability occasioned by resigning is removed by the War Department.

Recruiting Commissions will authorize officers to enlist recruits, and hold them until regularly mustered in, and to do such other necessary and proper acts as may be required to raise the troops called for. Officers will be confined in recruiting to the districts for which they are commissioned.

BOUNTIES AND CREDITS.

The Government bounty provided by law under this call is one hundred dollars for one year, two hundred dollars for two years, and three hundred dollars for three years, one-third of which will be paid by the mustering and disbursing officer, when the company is completed.

Each enlisted man will also be entitled to such county and township bounty as may be offered by the county or sub-district to which he is credited on the muster in rolls, and the residence of the enlisted man, as shown by the enlistment roll, will fix the place of his credit on any future draft that may be made.

RENDEZVOUS.

The general rendezvous for all the troops raised under these orders, will be at Camp Carrington, Indianapolis. No district camps will be established, but the place where the District Provost Marshal's office is located will be considered recruiting headquarters for the district.

The regiments to be raised will be designated as follows:

Number.	Recruiting Headquarters.	District.
143d Regiment.....	Evansville.....	First.
144th Regiment.....	Jeffersonville.....	Second.
145th Regiment.....	Columbus.....	Third.
146th Regiment.....	Greensburg.....	Fourth.
147th Regiment.....	Richmond.....	Fifth.
148th Regiment.....	Indianapolis.....	Sixth.
149th Regiment.....	Terre Haute.....	Seventh.
150th Regiment.....	Lafayette.....	Eighth.
151st Regiment.....	Laporte.....	Ninth.
152d Regiment.....	Kendallville.....	Tenth.
153d Regiment.....	Wabash.....	Eleventh.

RECRUITING AND MUSTERS.

Every precaution must be used to prevent the enlistment of persons unfit for the service, from physical disability, or of minors under eighteen years of age; and any recruiting officer who shall recruit boys under eighteen years of age, will be charged with their transportation and subsistence.

Deserters from the rebel army, bounty jumpers, and professional thieves and swindlers, are not proper persons to be enrolled in the army, and under no circumstances will they be allowed to enlist, if their character be known.

As fast as recruits are obtained they will be sent to the District Provost Marshal's office, where they will be examined by the Examining Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment, and if passed, at once mustered in the military service of the United States for one year by the District Provost Marshal, either singly or in squads.

Recruits will be forwarded to Indianapolis as often as once a week in squads, in charge of a recruiting officer, or other reliable person, who will report them promptly to the commanding officer at Camp Carrington. A list of their names, residences and places of enlistment should be sent with each squad for the use of the officers of the camp of rendezvous.

ORGANIZATIONS, COMMISSIONS, &C.

Companies may be organized with eighty-three men, the minimum number; one hundred and one men (officers, non-commissioned officers and privates) constitute a full or maximum company.

Commissions will be issued for services rendered in recruiting, as shown by the authenticated company rolls. Twenty-two men will be required for a Second Lieutenancy, and proportionately greater numbers for a First Lieutenancy and a Captaincy. Company officers cannot be mustered in until their companies are organized.

Where incomplete companies are thrown together, an equitable disposition of the offices will be made, having due regard to the claims of those who have recruited the men.

The non-commissioned officers, until the company shall be embodied in a regiment, will be appointed by the Captain.

In the regimental organization the company will be lettered and ranked in the order in which they were raised, as shown by the filing of correct completed rolls in the Adjutant General's office.

An Adjutant and Quartermaster will be commissioned for each regiment immediately, and mustered in "to aid in recruiting the same, and for the prompt transaction of all other public business."

The field officers of the regiment will be commissioned when the companies are raised and the regimental organization completed.

The non-commissioned staff will be selected by the Colonel from the non-commissioned officers and privates of the regiment.

TRANSPORTATION.

The chief recruiting officer of each District will be supplied with transportation passes for recruiting officers and recruits. The passes show on their face the purposes for which they are to be used. Every person will be held accountable for their proper use, and any person improperly using them will be severely dealt with.

SUBSISTENCE.

Second Lieutenants authorized to raise companies may contract for the subsistence and lodging of recruits after enlistment, and until they are mustered in and sent to the general rendezvous at Indianapolis, for a period not exceeding seven days, at a price not exceeding forty cents per day for each, and the accounts therefor, properly verified by the recruiting officer and approved by the Chief Recruiting Officer and the Governor, will be paid by the United States Disbursing Officer, provided the recruits so subsisted are received into the United States Service.

RECRUITS FOR OLD REGIMENTS.

Recruits for old regiments and batteries may be raised, mustered and sent to the general rendezvous in the same manner as herein directed for new organizations, and commissions will be given for recruits raised upon the principle hereinbefore stated, provided vacancies exist in the companies for which the recruits were enlisted.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S DUTIES, RETURNS, ETC.

District Provost Marshals will receive instructions in detail as to musters, rolls, forwarding recruits, &c., &c., from Brigadier General Pitcher, A. A. P. M. General and Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting for the State.

To prevent frauds, as well upon the soldiers enlisted as upon the people of the counties who furnish money for the payment of local bounties, District Provost Marshals are especially enjoined to satisfy themselves, beyond all doubt, that each enlisted man, mustered in personally receives the entire amount of local bounty to which he is entitled.

BLANKS.

Blank forms for the enlistment of recruits, for making out subsistence accounts, &c., will be furnished on application to the Adjutants of the regiments.

Blank muster-in and descriptive rolls will be obtained of Provost Marshals.

MEMORANDUM.

The 19th Indiana Infantry was mustered into the U. S. Army July 29th, 1861. Re-enlisted Jan. 1st, 1864, at Culpepper, Va. Mustered out at Louisville, Ky., July 12th, 1865.

October 2d, 1861, what was known afterwards as the "Iron Brigade," was organized under Gen. Rufus King, composed of the 2d, 6th and 7th Wisconsin Regiments and 19th Indiana. Shortly afterwards Battery B, 4th U. S. Artillery, was assigned to the brigade, under the command of Capt. John Gibbon. Many of the members of the battery were details from the infantry of the brigade. October, 1862, the 24th Michigan was assigned to the brigade. From the battle of South Mountain on the brigade was known as the Iron Brigade, a well-earned title. The 19th Indiana was engaged in a skirmish at Lewinsville, Va., September, 1861. During the years 1862-5 it was in all the battles engaged in by the Iron Brigade.

 Weldon Railroad Expedition, Va. Dec. 7-11

Oct. 18th, 1864, the 7th, 14th, 19th and 20th Indiana Regiments were consolidated and known as the 20th Indiana Infantry until close of the war. At Gainesville the first four regiments lost: killed 148, wounded 626, missing 120—a total of 894 out of about 2,000 engaged. Reported at the time as “a skirmish.”

At Gettysburg the five regiments were engaged, losing 162 killed, 724 wounded, and 267 missing; a total of 1,153 out of 1,883 engaged, or 61 per cent.

Battery B, 4th U S. Artillery attached to the brigade, met with the greatest aggregate of loss of any light artillery in the service during the Civil War. There is no doubt that more men fell at Stewart's guns than in any other battery in the Union armies.

In proportion to its numbers this brigade sustained the heaviest losses of any in the war.

The percentage of killed and died of wounds by regiments is as follows: 2d Wisconsin 19.7 per cent; 6th Wisconsin 12.5 per cent; 7th Wisconsin 17.2 per cent; 19th Indiana 15.9; 24th Michigan 15.2.

19th Indiana sustained the greatest loss in battle of any regiment from Indiana. Credit has been given to the 20th Indiana, but it is believed unjustly, because the losses sustained from Oct. 18, 1864, the date of consolidation, was credited to the 20th Indiana.

Wabash Valley Genealogical Society
P. O. Box 85
Terre Haute, Indiana 47808

Gentlemen:

I am a graduate student working on my Ph.D. in history at Florida State University, and I recently was fortunate enough to find a number of Civil War documents and letters relating to the Terre Haute area. Mr. Howard Woods of Milton, Florida, is the owner of the documents. He is the descendant of James F. Murphy, an army officer in the Indiana Volunteers during the Civil War. The collection consists of personal letters, roll books, roster sheets, and numerous governmental forms and paperwork. Mr. Woods did not wish to part with these papers, but he was generous enough to allow me to copy much of the information contained within them. I have compiled the most important material in this collection, the five items you will find enclosed:

- 1.) Enlisted men listed in roll book of Company C of the 133rd Regiment of the Indiana Volunteers, Army of the United States, from May 1864 to August 1864.
- 2.) Enlisted men listed as being connected with Company H of the 149th Indiana Volunteers during 1865.
- 3.) Enlisted men listed in the transactions of Company H of the 149th Indiana Volunteers during 1865.
- 4.) Information found in records of Company H, 149th Indiana Volunteers, 1865.
- 5.) Muster-out roll of Captain James F. Murphy, Company H in the 149th Regiment of Indiana Infantry Volunteers commanded by Colonel William H. Fairbanks; Sept. 27, 1865.

There were several differing lists of enlisted men found within this collection, so I have included all of them. Unfortunately, the handwriting on many of the documents was difficult to decipher; thus, some of the spellings of the names may be of a questionable nature. Also, some variant spellings of the same name were found. Such names with a degree of uncertainty as regard to spelling are indicated with a (?).

Donated by Wabash Valley Genealogical Society 3-31-87

I hope that this little bit of historical information may prove useful to your organization, for it does provide important biographical data for quite a number of Indiana citizens. Duplicate copies have also been sent to the Vigo County Historical Society and the Indiana State Library.

Sincerely yours,

Brian Rucker
